

Important Information for Prize Distribution

- All the participants will have to compulsorily fill the feedback form. The feedback form shall be provided to the participants at the time of registration.
- The participants have to attend the respective competition from the beginning to end as per instructions provided by the respective event coordinator.
- Participants have to enter their information in the registration form properly and accurately. The same information shall appear on their certificates.
- The winners of the competition should collect the prizes from the prize distribution committee after the Valedictory Function.